

Come Dine at Mine

What is Come Dine At Mine?

Come Dine at Mine is Norwood's version of the TV programme Come Dine with Me - with a fundraising twist! We are dedicating a weekend 24-26 February 2012 for you to host a lunch, brunch or dinner party in your own home whilst your guests rate your cooking and entertaining skills to raise money for Norwood.

How it works

- Set the date for your Come Dine at Mine event - weekend of 24-26 February 2012
- Invite your friends and family
- Plan your menu
- Cook up a feast
- Host a wonderful event and raise money for Norwood!
- Send us money you have raised and then photos of your meal to enter the competition
- We will provide you with invitation, menu, place card and score card templates and everything you need to raise money for Norwood.

The Come Dine at Mine Competition

You will automatically be entered into the Come Dine at Mine competition where you will have the chance to win some great prizes for you and your guests.

A maximum of 40 points can be won, and you will be scored on:

Food – send in a photo and description and you will be scored on the presentation, innovation and how delicious your food looks

Fundraising – you will be awarded 1 point for every £100 you raise, up to 10 points

Guest Score – your guests will get the chance to fill in a score card “come dine with me” style and this will be averaged out to give you an overall score out of 10

Norwood Bonus Score – you will have the opportunity to earn up to 10 bonus points for that extra bit of creativity, attention to detail and imagination.

Once you have signed up we will be in touch with loads of ideas, money off vouchers and top tips to help you make your dinner party wonderful.
