

Make A Difference

Make A Difference events have included a style workshop, an evening with Derek Ogilvie - a Baby Mindreader, and Trying Times where a panel of four medical experts discussed fertility, pregnancy, babies, toddlers and teens.

Previous events include:

Style Workshop (June 2008)

Sara Segal, of Personal Style London, showed ladies how optimal colours and style can make them look younger, slimmer and taller with some quick and easy tips.

Trying times? From trying to conceive to trying teens... (June 2007)

Trying Times was an evening of questions and answers with a top panel of experts on fertility, pregnancy, babies, toddlers and teens.
