

Legacies

By leaving a gift to Norwood in your will, our important work can be continued long after you die. All legacies – small or large – help to finance Norwood's work.

In 2008 - 2009, Norwood raised £1.6m through legacies.

Many of Norwood's supporters feel that once they have provided for their own families, leaving a legacy is a way of helping the Jewish community.

Our vast range of specialist support provide care, compassion and encouragement for people in difficulty. Your legacy will make a real difference to the future.

How to show you care

Leaving a legacy to Norwood is not complicated, but it does need to be included in a professionally made will. There are three ways in which you can leave a gift to Norwood:

1. Residuary

A Residuary legacy is the gift of the residue or balance of the value of your estate or a percentage of the residue or balance of the value of your estate, once your debts, funeral and testamentary expenses and other legacies have been paid. Generally, this kind of gift is of the greatest benefit to Norwood as its value increases in line with the value of your estate.

2. Pecuniary

This is a specified sum of money, decided when your will or codicil is written.

3. Specific

When a particular item of value is left for Norwood, this is a Specific legacy. It includes stocks and shares, proceeds of a life assurance policy, property, furniture or jewellery.

Further Information

Whatever you can give is so important to us and will, of course, be free of Inheritance Tax. As a permanent record of your generosity and caring, a memorial plaque can be arranged.

Offering new hope to children and families is what Norwood does every day. Please help to keep our vital work alive in the years ahead by calling us - now.
