

Norwood now

Norwood Now is an upbeat bi-annual 'lifestyle' magazine containing a broad range of interesting articles, divided in to four distinct sections and covering news and information about Norwood, Staff, Volunteers and Fundraising.

The magazine showcases the many ways in which supporters can enable Norwood to help thousands of people with learning disabilities, and children and families in need, change the lives. It also includes a news summary written using Norwood's award-winning Plain English format, which is accessible for people with learning disabilities.

Norwood Now is mailed in recyclable plastic packaging – so not only is it good for the community, it's better for the environment too!

Interactive Online Magazine:

Our publications can be viewed as an interactive magazine that allows you to:

- flick through the pages like a real magazine (flip the brochure pages or use the arrow keys at the bottom of the page)
- view videos & photos
- view a link by clicking on any flashing text or images (other than video) or areas that highlight as you move the mouse over them
- download selected pages to keep or print

(You will require Adobe Acrobat Reader to view our PDF's and Adobe Flash Player to view our interactive magazines. Both are available to download below.)
