

Andrew Viner (Treasurer)

Andrew Viner is a Partner with the world's 5th largest accountancy network BDO LLP where he specialises in Technology Media and Telecoms. He previously worked at Andersen and prior to that KPMG. He attended Manchester University and obtained a BSC(Hons) in Management Sciences in 1991. Andrew is a Chartered Accountant and is also a Fellow of the Securities Institute.

He is married to Emma and has three children. He was born and brought up in one of the UK's smallest Jewish communities in Chester, Cheshire.

His outside interests include football, cycling, skiing and golf. He is a Liverpool supporter.

Working alongside Philip Bunt, our Director of Corporate Services, Andrew ensures that Norwood's finances are prudently managed.

Andrew is also Chair of Norwood's Corporate Services committee and as such he oversees finance, HR, Health & Safety, IT, Property and Audit within Norwood.
