

David Goldstone

David Goldstone was appointed as a Norwood Trustee in November 2009. For several years, he has volunteered with the Charity as a consultant to its Employment Service, which supports people with learning disabilities into the workforce. He has also recruited a number of senior executives for Norwood.

David is a Partner with Osprey Clarke, which is a generalist Executive Search firm. He recruits at board and senior management level, across key sectors, functions and geographies for major international organisations, medium sized companies and Private Equity/Venture Capital backed ventures.

David is a keen cyclist having taken part in Norwood's Big H Bike Ride in 2003 and Rajasthan Bike Ride in 2009. He is married to Laurene and has two children.
