

Enterprise Supper Quiz raises £12,000 for Norwood

16 January 2012

A bit of brain power and a lot of goodwill helped Norwood to raise an incredible £12,000 at its annual Supper Quiz. More than 200 people packed into St Michael's Banqueting Hall in Golders Green to take part in a quiz, which was organised by the Enterprise Committee and hosted by regular quizmaster Alan Dediccoat. The aptly named Michael's Winners walked away with first prize, while a special True or False round was won by Ron Fogleman.

Jessica Levy, Norwood's Events Fundraiser, said: "The evening was a great success and was unquestionably enjoyed by all. On behalf of Norwood, I would like to thank all our participants for their support of such a worthy cause that benefits so many vulnerable people in the community. Thanks are also due to our quizmaster, Alan Dediccoat, and the Enterprise Committee, whose hard work contributed to the evening's success."

Norwood would also like to invite members of the community to take part in its Come Dine at Mine weekend at the end of February. For more information about the event please go to www.norwood.org.uk/dine
