

Supper Quiz raises £6500 for Norwood

26 January 2009

A Supper Quiz held at St Michaels Banqueting Hall in Golders Green on Sunday 18 January raised £6,500 for Norwood, the UK's leading charity supporting children, families and adults, coping with learning disabilities and social disadvantage, in the Jewish community and beyond.

The winner of the True or False round was David Salem, while the main event was won by Michael Gerrard and his team, which included Joanna Barnett, Jonathan Brody, Daniel Clayden, Deborah Clayden, Darren Gold, Judith Gamse, Andrew Lawrence, Jack Moses, Jan Moses, Albert Shamash, and Philippa Sher.

This was Norwood's third annual Supper Quiz, with Alan Dediccoat, the National Lottery's legendary "Voice of the Balls" as the quizmaster.

"The money raised will go towards providing vital services to Jewish children, adults and families coping with learning disability and social disadvantage," said Event Organiser Candice Mendes da Costa. "It was also a really enjoyable social event."
